THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To be educated at Salve Regina University is to balance growth between mind and soul. As you reflect on the paths you have traveled thus far, you can see that significant preparations have fortified you for joy, discovery, journey and adventure.

In Newport in the late 1800s, Oceanside estates of prominent leaders whose wealth, effort and imagination formed distinctive and competitive alliances and environments from around the world unknowingly set the stage for Salve Regina. Our University brims with cultural history, physical splendor and people who feel genuine concern for one another. Salve Regina has challenged you, as stewards of God's creation, to recognize the grandeur of our heritage, the promise of the future, and the need for a just and merciful world.

The class of 1999 has already embraced a spirit of dedication to the University and to the furtherance of knowledge. You have joined an international array of alumni who have been afforded opportunities to influence the future of our institution and our world. I am confident that you will succeed.

The Office of Student Life congratulates all of the Class of 1999
on reaching one of life's many goals.

BERNARD "DOC" MASTERSON
1931-1999

I have always felt that the most important aspect of theatre is touching the life and the soul of at least one of the individuals watching. Whether it's bringing a laugh during a hard time or helping someone see inside themselves a bit clearer than they did prior to buying that ticket, theatre has this special power.

Bernard G. Masterson harnessed this power and was able to touch the lives of so many. As a director he would demand perfection accepting nothing less. He thrived on getting more out of an actor than he ever thought he could get. In his tiny space in The Megley Theater he would bring his audience to the hot sands of Egypt, the brilliant architecture of ancient Greece, or downtown Liverpool on a Friday night. He could take the limitations he was given and turn them into a beauty and style that never let its audience down in the end. Simply put he loved what he did and that reflected in his directing and his teaching.

Describing Dr. Masterson as a teacher has always been simple, he cares. When he would seem unreasonable and stubborn, he always had a hidden motive and that motive would be in the best interest of the students and the department. He strongly encouraged a second major for all theatre majors because as he told me, "How are you going to eat after you graduate?" He knew the difficulty of living as a professional actor and never let his students have any false illusions. In teaching, much like his directing, he also wanted perfection. He created a Theatre Arts Major. This major includes acting, but also stagecraft, make-up, costume design, and theatre history. He wanted his students to have as broad an education in theatre as possible. He designed the New York trip where majors can spend a weekend in New York City talking with alumni that are living the life, becoming familiar with theatre row, and learning where to go and where not to go should they pursue a life in the city. For a Rhode Island school, this trip is invaluable to theatre students.

Dr. Masterson, or "Doc" as so many of us dubbed him with the greatest respect, is and always will be one of the most influential people in my life. He is loved and respected by so many and has touched so many lives directly or indirectly. His legacy will carry on in the hearts and actions of his students, his friends, and his family.

Thanks Doc.

The University Seal

1934

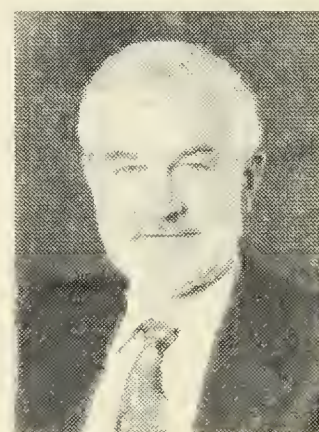

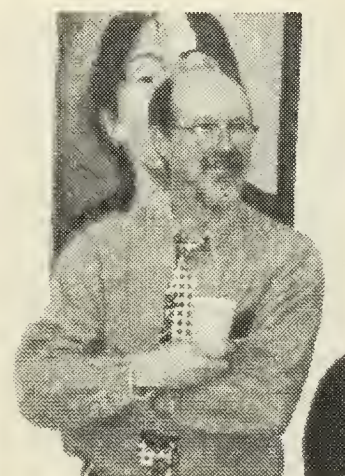

At its first meeting on July 27, 1934, at St. Xavier Convent, the Board of Directors voted to accept the seal of Salve Regina College. The seal depicts Our Lady of Mercy enclosed in a circle and standing before a cross. Around Our Lady's head is inscribed the motto: Maria Spes Nostra, Mary our Hope. On one side of the base is the lamp of learning, and on the other, the book of learning.

This seal, according to the by-laws, shall be affixed to all official documents and decrees prepared by Salve Regina University. Thus, the image of Our Lady is forever to be the official sign and symbol of all our endeavors and the visible expression of the source of our hope. Sister Mary Mercedes Quinton executed its design. The seal was a gift from Dr Charles Carroll one of the original incorporators of Salve Regina College.
